A borrower is entitled to have up to 100% of a loan under the Federal Perkins Loan program canceled for qualifying service in a public or nonprofit elementary or secondary school, as a full-time teacher in a federally designated low-income school or educational services agency; a full-time special education teacher, including teachers of infants, toddlers, children or youth with disabilities; or a full-time teacher in a field that is determined by a state education agency as having a shortage of qualified teachers, including the fields of mathematics, science, foreign languages, bilingual education or in any other field of expertise.

As of 8/14/2008, a full-time faculty member at a Tribal college or university; or a librarian with a master’s degree in library science employed in a low-income school or public library serving low-income schools.

No portion of any loan may be canceled for services the borrower performed before the date the loan was disbursed, or during the same period the loan was received. The cancellation rate per year of service is:

- 15% of the original principal loan amount for each of the first and second years
- 20% of the original principal loan amount for each of the third and fourth years
- 30% of the original principal loan amount for the fifth year

DEFINITIONS

Children and youth with disabilities are children from ages 3 through 21 who require special education and related services because they have disabilities as defined in section 602(a)(1) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Infants and toddlers with disabilities are children from birth to age two who need early intervention services for specified reasons as defined in section 672(1) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

DEFERMENT: If you are working in a position which you believe will qualify you for partial cancellation, a form requesting deferment must be filed at the start of service to suspend billing and defer payments of principal and interest. A six-month post-deferment grace period follows.

CANCELLATION: Cancellation applications must be submitted at the completion of each twelve months of service.

Improper completion of forms will cause delays in updating your loan. Until the SUNY Student Loan Service Center receives all the proper documentation, you will continue to receive notices that payment is due. Your loan will be subject to late fees and credit bureau reporting. Not filing a form in a timely manner is equivalent to sending payment past the due date.
